

Data Protection Statements for COVID-19 response

Consent to be gained from people receiving support:

We need you to consent to pass your contact details on to the volunteers who will be calling you and supporting you in these difficult times. We apologise for the legal nature of this statement but we are required to get your formal consent before we pass on your telephone number etc to the volunteers who have offered to help you.

I agree that personal data relating to me, which has been obtained by (insert name of the synagogue) in the past, including the data given by me on this form or by telephone or by other means of communication may be held and processed on computer or manual records. I agree that my personal data may be disclosed to authorised employees of (insert name of the synagogue) and other volunteers and organisations involved in the coronavirus community response co-ordinated by, approved by or in conjunction with (insert name of the synagogue). I agree that the people or organisations who have received my personal data can contact me using my personal data regarding support..

Consent to be gained from volunteers:

I agree that personal data relating to me, which has been obtained by (insert name of the synagogue), including the data given by me on this form, may be held and processed on computer or manual records and may be disclosed to authorised employees of (insert name of the synagogue) and other volunteers and organisations involved in the C19 community response co-ordinated by, approved by or in conjunction with (insert name of the synagogue), relating to my voluntary work. I agree that these organisations can contact me regarding my voluntary work.

Please note this does not give consent to share personal details of volunteers with recipients of support.

It is preferable for both parties to confirm this by email, but if only phone consent is possible, please record this.
